The rising executive has long identified with the performance, style and status of the 3.2 litre XJ6. To say nothing of its exceptional value for money. Unsurprisingly this discerning group's choice of the XJ6 has frequently specified the same optional equipment: automatic transmission, air-conditioning, leather seats. The XJ Executive provides all these features and in addition a wood/leather steering wheel, wooden gearknob and leather sports style seats are standard. All the executive driver requires. No deficiency. No waste. The optimum blend of quality, refinement and performance. And this carefully researched, precisely packaged response to the executive's requirements achieves a very competitive price.

The Jaguar XJ Executive is a highly focused vehicle. Its very name confirms a commitment to a specific kind of Jaguar owner. These are ambitious, decisive, hands-on personalities. What they ask of a car is what they ask of themselves. Sustained high performance. Dedication to the highest levels of quality. A clarity of purpose which excludes peripheral distractions.

The seamless flexibility of the four-speed automatic gearbox makes no demands. No marginal decision-making required. The XJ Executive driver is in an effortless, stress-free, climate controlled environment and is held firmly in command by leather sports seats. At ease but ready, like the car, to respond to any kind of pressure.

The Jaguar XJ Executive delivers it all. And it delivers you into any business situation with confidence and self-esteem reaffirmed. Every time. As for status, this Jaguar says all that needs to be said.
